

Season Tickets for Our Forthcoming Redpath Chautauqua

In arranging to inaugurate this chautauqua this year the local committee bought 1,000 $2.50 season tickets, which will be sold, while they last, by them for $2.00 each.

When these tickets are exhausted no season tickets thereafter can be had for less than $2.50. Also, the price of season tickets will not be reduced from the first day to the close of the chautauqua.

The single admissions to the different sessions of this chautauqua aggregate more than $8.00, so it will pay you to buy a season ticket even after the program is half completed. For the single admissions to the respective entertainments see program. Season tickets are non-transferable except within the owner's family.

CHILDREN'S TICKETS admit children aged six to fourteen years inclusive. All children are admitted to the children's work free.

She Was Smothering.

Rockford, Ala.—Mrs. M. C. Paschal, of this place says: "I was taken with nervous prostration, and had headache, pains in my right side, and smothering spells, I called in physicians to treat my case, but without relief. Finally, I tried Cardui, and it gave perfect satisfaction. I recommend it to every sick woman." Are you weak, tired, worn out? Do you suffer from any of the pains peculiar to weak women? Cardui has a record of over fifty years in relieving such troubles, and will certainly benefit you. It prevents those frequent headaches, and keeps you up, out of bed, feeling happy. Try Cardui. #### PASSES.

"Do you remember when you undertook to cut out passes?" said the stockholder.

"Yes," replied the railway manager. "That was under the requirement of the government."

"Well, isn't it up to the government to make you find some way to stop passing dividends?"

THE MAIN POINT.

Edith—Jack Roxleigh is good looking enough, but I don't care for his ways.

Edna—Never mind his ways, my dear; think of his means.

VERY MUCH SO.

"Are your new neighbors people of family?"

"I should say so! Thirteen children, a mother-in-law and two poor relations."

SURPRISING.

"I have forgotten a great deal of my palmistry."

"That's odd. I thought it was a knowledge one always kept on hand."

AT LONG RANGE.

"Yes, sir, I remonstrated with this General Villa."

"You are a bold man."

"I remonstrated by telegraph."

JUST A LITTLE TOO MUCH

Dilatory Lover Probably Scientifically Right, but He Failed to Make a Hit.

They had been engaged three years, but there seemed no indications that the good ship Matrimony was hovering in the offing. She was getting restless, but when she touched the subject he dexterously turned the conversation.

Recently he turned it off to physiology, a science of which he was a student.

"Yes," he said, airily, "it is a strange but well-authenticated fact that the whole of the human body changes every seven years. You, my dear, are Miss Jones now. In seven years you will have changed completely. Not a particle of your present self will be left; but, all the same, you will still be Miss Jones."

"Oh, shall I?" said the angry damsel, tugging away at the third finger of her left hand. "I assure you I won't, if I have to marry a rag picker. Of all the cool impudence—Here's your ring, and I never, never want to see you again!"

OLD POSTAL RATES.

An interesting relic in the shape of a table of the post offices in the United States as they were October 1, 1830, recently came to the hands of a Madison (Me.) man. At that time the whole number of offices in the United States was 8,610. The rates on postage as given by the guide and established by the congress in 1825 were: On a single letter composed of one piece of paper for any distance not exceeding 30 miles, 6 cents; more than 30 miles and not exceeding 80 miles, 10 cents; more than 80 miles and not exceeding 150, 12½ cents; more than 150 miles and not exceeding 400, 18¾ cents; more than 400 miles, 25 cents. A letter composed of two pieces of paper was charged double these rates; one of three pieces triple and four pieces quadruple those rates. For newspapers the rate was 1¼ cents for more than 100 miles.
